

انجمن رمز ایران
Iranian Society of Cryptology

Incident Coordination

This workshop is focused on coordination of major security incidents. We cover the processes involved in handling a security incident as well as how to coordinate incident responses with external entities such as vendors, and other organizations. It is particularly applicable to anyone who is, or plans to be, a participant in a computer security incident response team (CSIRT).